OLD CITIZEN DIES

Jere Murphy, for Twenty Years Resident of Monett, Succumbs to Stomach Trouble

Jeremiah Murphy passed away, Wednesday afternoon, July 22, at his home in the presence of all his family. His death was caused by stomach trouble from which he had been a sufferer for a number of years.

Funeral services will be held at the residence Friday morning, at 10:30 o'clock.

Mr. Murphy was born in Ireland February 22, 1848 and was 66 years old at his death. For twenty years he and his family have lived in Monett and vicinity. They lived on a farm east of town before coming here. While a farmer Mr. Murphy had the misfortune to fall into a mining shaft breaking his leg and injuring him in other ways, which was probably the beginning of his ill health.

On coming to Monett he became a dealer in coal and wood. He was a good business man and strictly honest in all his dealings. He was a man of strong convictions and would not countenance evil doing in any form.

Besides his faithful and devoted wife he leaves seven children. They are Mrs. Henry Ballay, Mrs. Pat Moore, John and Vincent Murphy, of Monett; Mrs. James Stuart and Mrs. Jas. McGuire, of Denver and Jere Murphy, Jr., of Springfield. Four children have died.

MCDOWELL MILL SOLD

The McDowell mill, G. W. Short proprietor, has been sold to W. T. Horn, of Sarcoxie, the consideration being $4,500. Mr. Horn will take charge at once. What Mr. Short will do we are not informed.

THE WEATHER

Generally fair Thursday and Friday.

Don't Burn It

"I have money to burn" said old Si Chestnut, "but some way I can't stand, the smell of the smoke."

And Si was a pretty wise old man. Still, money actually does burn sometimes, literally—not figuratively. Hid in the stove and some chump starts a fire, hid away in the house that burns down. The only safe plan is to keep money in a reliable bank like ours. It's subject to check when you need it, but in the meantime it is safe from fire, burglary or accident.
